GIST Techno Management Business Academy hosts inaugural ceremony for the 11th Alumni Association

- GIST Techno Management Business Academy (GMBA) held a ceremony to launch the 11th Alumni Association (Chairman Young-hee Choi, CEO of KOS Co., Ltd.) on June 15 at Oryong Hall with about 50 GMBA alumni in attendance.
  - The event was attended by Goun City Eye Co., Ltd., Chairman Ki-sup Chung and GIST Vice President for Public Affairs Young-jip Kim and others to celebrate its launch.
- Alumni Association Chairman Young-hee Choi delivered the inaugural address, saying, "I think the 11th GMBA Association will also be the best association to harmonize and interact with alumni on the basis of the solid capabilities and potential that the GST Technology Management Academy has built up. I will do my duty as chairman to contribute to regional development and win-win development through industry-academic cooperation as well as exchange and communication between alumni."
- GIST Vice President for Public Affairs Young-jip Kim said, "I think it is very meaningful to run the 11th course with wonderful leaders and opinion leaders who are leading Gwangju and Jeonnam. From now on, we will work harder for the development of GIST and GTMBA."

- Alumni Association President Ki-sup Chung said, "On behalf of the alumni, I sincerely congratulate you on the launch of the 11th Alumni Association. Let's strive for harmony among each class to be reborn as the best academy in the community and let alumni companies be central to local economic development."
