Professor Jaeyoung Lee and Professor Heung-No Lee are appointed as advisors to the Presidential Policy Planning Committee

- GIST (Gwangju Institute of Science and Technology, President Kiseon Kim) Professor Jaeyoung Lee (Dean of Earth Sciences and Environmental Engineering) and Professor Heung-No Lee (School of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science, Blockchain Internet Economic Research Center) have been appointed as advisors to the Presidential Policy Planning Committee.
- The Policy Planning Committee was established in December 2017 and is under the direct control of the president, and it performs the role of a "think tank" to coordinate 100 national affairs tasks, to study policy issues, and to plan national development strategies and policy directions.
 - It recommends and advises the president on matters related to policy research and policy evaluation on important issues, as well as setting mid- to long-term development goals for the country.
- GIST Professor Jaeyoung Lee and Professor Heung-No Lee will contribute to presenting the vision and establishing strategies for a balanced regional New Deal in the future by collecting public opinion in the area of the government's Digital New Deal area and to plan policies for On-Line Governance.
