GIST 25th Anniversary Celebration on September 6th (Thurs): GIST Honorary Ambassador Ji-Hae Park performs concert

- GIST (President Seung Hyeon Moon) celebrates its 25th anniversary with the 'New Work Experience' concert performance by Ji-Hae Park at the Oryong Hall on September 6, 2018, which is scheduled for ninety minutes.
- To celebrate its 25th anniversary, GIST has commissioned violinist Ji-Hae Park for one year (2018.5.14 to 2019.5.13) as an honorary ambassador to promote GIST's research achievements and vision. Violinist Ji-Hae Park plans to promote the 25th anniversary of GIST with a concert talk.
 - Violinist Ji-Hae Park graduated from Karlsruhe National University of Music in Germany and served as a goodwill ambassador for the Korean Committee for Peace and Arts as well as the 2018 Pyeongchang Winter Olympics. She also participated in a 2017 GIST cultural event as an invited performer.
- Violinist Ji-Hae Park said, "As a honorary ambassador for GIST, I will share GIST's outstanding research results and vision with GIST members and local residents and will take the lead in promoting GIST this year through performances such as this one."

- GIST, which celebrates its 25th anniversary this year, will hold various large and small events until November when the celebration will culminate with student festivals, exhibitions, and events.
